THE HON'BLE THE CHIEF JUSTICE UJJAL BHUYAN

AND

THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE C.V.BHASKAR REDDY

W.A.No. 236 of 2014

JUDGMENT: (Per the Hon'ble the Chief Justice Ujjal Bhuyan)

Heard Ms. K.Rajitha, learned counsel for the appellant.

2. This appeal is directed against the common order dated 20.12.2012 passed by the learned Single Judge allowing WP.No.23754 of 2009 and batch including W.P. No.25452 of 2009 against which the present appeal has been instituted.

3. W.P.No.25452 of 2009 was filed by the respondent as the writ petitioner (Sri Vaageswari Ayurvedic Medical College, Karimnagar).

4. In the batch of writ petitions, legality of admission of students into the first year of Bachelor of Ayurvedic Medicine and Surgery (BAMS) course for the academic year 2009-2010 in two institutions, one of which is the respondent, was under consideration.

5. By the common order dated 20.12.2012, learned Single Judge allowed the writ petition by directing that the students should be entitled to complete their course, but the said order would not confer any right upon the two institutions including the respondent herein to admit candidates for any other academic year unless specific approval was accorded by the Central Council of Indian Medicine. Learned Single Judge clarified that degree conferred upon the students should be recognized by all agencies including the Central Council of Indian Medicine.

6. We find that Writ Appeal No.613 of 2014 arising out of the aforesaid common order dated 20.12.2012 was dismissed as infructuous by this Court on 20.04.2017.

7. Be that as it may, issue involved in the present appeal pertains to the academic year 2009-2010. At this distant point of time, we are not inclined to examine the above issue on merit. Therefore, concurring with the views expressed by the learned

Single Judge, we dismiss the present Writ Appeal as infructuous. No costs.

As a sequel, miscellaneous petitions, pending if any, stand dismissed.
